OBITUARY.

ISAAC KIP, JR.

The death of Isaac Kip, Jr., at his home in Peekskill on Thursday was announced at the Stock Exchange here yesterday. He was one of the oldest members of the board, having been admitted on April 30, 1892. He retired from active business in 1876 and was seldom seen in Wall Street afterward. He was nearly sixty-five years old. A committed and capable business man, he was appointed and some of the members will attend the funeral services at Peekskill to-day. The interment will be at Tarrytown.

SERGEANT LEWIS LEFFEMAN.

LOCKPORT, May 15 (Special).—Sergeant Lewis Leffeman, who for many years enjoyed the distinction of being the oldest soldier in the United States service, died here yesterday morning at his home in Youngstown last night, age eighty-eight. He was born in 1809, and was a member of the 10th New York Cavalry, and the 10th New York Infantry.

participated in the battle at Waterloo, and had a medal given him by Napoleon I. He served fifty-four years in the United States Army continuously, and by a special act of Congress was retired on full pay after his death. His name has also received a valuable testimonial from General Sherman.

SHR BIDS FAREWELL TO EVERY FEAR.
From The Memphis Avalanche.

Time brings us our revenge. A few years ago and a whisper of epidemic made the Memphis man wriggle and shudder. But now say smallpox and he smiles, say yellow-fever and he grins, say cholera and he laughs. He knows how to take care of himself. Time has set several-pipes, subsoil drainage, garbage cars, honks to house inspection, fire, water and judicial authority can make her.
